You will recall that in May of this year Angleton was confined to a sanitarium because of a tubercular ailment. For your information, Angleton returned to his home on November 4, 1960, where he will continue his convalescence. The lung infection has been cleared but he will be required to rest and continue some drug treatments for several more weeks. He very likely will not return to active duty before April 1, 1961.

ACTION:

For your information.

CIA #88-1826

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend a get-well letter be written to Angleton, a valuable liaison contact, who has been hospitalized with a bleeding ulcer.

ANGLETON'S CONDITION:

Liaison learned late in the evening of 9/11/68 that Angleton, who was visiting at the home of a friend, was seized with an attack of hemorrhaging and rushed to the George Washington University Medical Center, where his condition was diagnosed as a bleeding ulcer. He is in Room 6224 South. He can receive no visitors and no telephone calls. Angleton has been an extremely valuable liaison contact at CIA for many years and is well known to a number of Bureau officials.

RECOMMENDATION:

That an appropriate letter be addressed to Angleton expressing regret at his illness and wishing him a speedy recovery. The letter should be addressed to Mr. James Angleton, Room 6224 South, George Washington University Medical Center, 901 23rd Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C. 20037.

Dear Mr. Angleton:

I certainly was sorry to learn that it was necessary for you to enter the hospital and hope this note finds you resting comfortably. Your friends in the FBI join me in expressing best wishes for a quick and com-

This recommends that public source material relating to the Bureau's assessment of the hostile foreign intelligence threat and the importance of counterintelligence be supplied to Angleton.

Angleton is the former Chief, Counterintelligence Staff, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), who for many years cooperated with the Bureau in connection with some of our most sensitive counterintelligence investigations. He recently resigned from CIA as a result of the current publicity concerning CIA activities.

Mr. Angleton telephonically contacted the Bureau on 7/24/75 and advised that he is still very much interested in the subject of counterintelligence and fully supports the position taken by Mr. Kelley and other Bureau officials as reported in the press concerning the importance of counterintelligence and the need for support of the FBI in fulfilling its responsibilities in this field. Angleton is continuing to do research concerning the importance of counterintelligence and indicated he will do everything he can to encourage support of the Bureau in fulfilling its counterintelligence mission. He stated that it would be most helpful to him if he could be furnished copies of any public source material that is readily available such as press releases, radio-TV transcripts, public testimony by Bureau officials, etc., which address this topic.
